Tales of love lost - or perhaps, more accurately, love never gained.

I'm a Catch... Aren't I? explores one woman's steep and confusing climb to the peak of "single ladies' mountain." As she weathers this arduous journey, she becomes all-too-familiar with perplexing predicaments, missed opportunities, cloudy self-doubt, and the fear of the unknown.

She revisits the most influential men of her past - the guys she's almost loved... and definitely lost. These are the men who have kept her hiking up "single ladies' mountain" instead of frolicking upon "happily-ever-after hilltop." From Justin, her first crush and the rock star of the eighth grade, to Demetrius, her Grecian love affair and the tallest all-star athlete in college, the men are eclectic, but have one crucial thing in common: they never became her boyfriend.

I'm a Catch... Aren't I?" attempts to answer the questions most women today ask themselves. Is it us, or is it them? Why do bad guys happen to good girls? Why doesn't anything ever seem to work out?

The author uses her own experiences in an attempt to make sense of the emotional roller coaster of the "dating" world, and the frustration of longing for guys who lead girls on just to leave them hanging.
