Castaway in the Caribbean Janice Horton

Castaway in the Caribbean Vacationing on the beautiful Caribbean island of Antigua, Janey Sinclair is persuaded by her magazine editor boss to do a quick island hop in order to supervise an impromptu photo-shoot for the front cover. With no flights immediately available, Janey is directed to the harbour. Captain Travis Mathews hates tourists, although he's not above making a bit of money off a prissy and sharp tongued young British girl when she's desperate to get to the neighbouring island of Tortola. After striking a deal, they set off together in Travis's weather-beaten old boat. When the vessel comes to a sudden full stop in the sea, the mismatched pair end up as castaways on an uninhabited island. In this fast moving romantic adventure about a vacation that turns into a tropical nightmare there's more fun than you'll find in any travel brochure.
