Country Girls 5: " I Love My Girls " Blake Karrington

The Ladies of MHB are back and ready to take their new -found success to the next level. But with success comes more haters and rivals who are shooting at the team on top. After living through the largest shootout in downtown Charlotte's history, the women have decided to take the group all the way legit. MHB owns enough real estate to secure the future of all the original members and new recruits alike. There's only one problem: nobody believes these country girls can leave the streets alone and maybe, just maybe, they really can't.
