I Married the Bitch from Hell Trevor Lawrance

This is a true story of the life, thoughts and controversial opinions of the photographer Trevor Lawrance. It covers the early days in Cork, Ireland, his childhood in Bristol, England and onward to France. It covers a period of time from 1962 until 2004, and is an introduction into his next book "Two Years in Dordogne". We think it should be of interest to many people but especially those who have lived in Cork, Bristol or rural France. Serious thoughts plus laughter make up an interesting book.
