Lizards: Understanding and caring for your lizard (Practical Pets series Book 2)

There is an incredibly diverse range of lizards, from leopard and crested geckos to bearded dragons and their relatives, not to mention colourful chameleons, that are now kept and regularly bred by enthusiasts. Some lizards can become very tame, while others delight with their lively natures and beauty in attractively landscaped enclosures. Discover those which appeal most to you, and how to look after them, in this guide from the publishers of "Practical Reptile Keeping" magazine. More than 20 popular lizard groups are covered here, and there is in-depth discussion of their breeding requirements as well as health matters. Fully illustrated in colour throughout.
