The Obedient Wife Carolyn Faulkner

Ginger knew from the first moment she met him that Sean was the perfect man for her in every way possible. He was a man's man, a dominant husband. He enjoyed testing the limits of her obedience to him, and so far she'd managed to meet almost every challenge he'd given her.

Not that she was perfectly behaved, she wasn't. But she wasn't stupid, either, and she usually did her best to avoid being tipped over his lap.

Sean's most recent challenge involved the application of two not so tiny invaders in certain very private areas of her person while she was at work and he was only a few miles away with a remote. This certainly wasn't unexpected behavior on his behalf and the results weren't entirely unpleasant on her behalf.

Sean enjoyed teasing her and holding her so close to completion in a public place. He was also acutely aware that the act of submitting to him is what got Ginger going more so than anything else. Just thinking about what was happening to her made him incredibly hot.

Moreover, he knew she would be uncontrollably hot for him by the time he decided to allow his obedient wife any modicum of release.
