Lost Civil War Battlefields James Campi Jr.

Some 10,500 armed conflicts occurred during the Civil War, ranging from battles to minor skirmishes; 384 conflicts were identified as the principal battles and classified according to their historical significance. The 384 principal battles occurred in 26 states. States with 15 or more include: Virginia (123), Tennessee (38), Missouri (29), Georgia (28), Louisiana (23), North Carolina (20), Arkansas (17), and Mississippi (16). Seventy-one of the Civil War battlefields are already lost as intact historic landscapes. Half of the 232 principal battlefields that currently are in good or fair condition are now under threat. Battlefields such as Chantilly and Salem Church in Virginia are just two examples of battlegrounds all but destroyed. Lost Battlefields of the Civil War looks at the historic sites of the conflict that have failed to be preserved—not just the battlefields, but also the defensive fortifications, trench systems, prisons, naval yards, winter quarters, and other significant buildings. It also highlights those battlefields in danger of imminent loss as development pressures increase in the 21st century.
