"Master Harold"...and the Boys Made Easy: Literature Guide Students' Academy

The play is based on the events from the real world. It is assumed that the events in the play come from Fugard's own experiences.

"Master Harold" very effectively evokes the painful memories from the troubled history of South Africa.

The play very successfully presents the racism and patriarchy that was widespread in the country. The playwright seems to be working towards exorcising his own personal demons through this play.
