Hello Friends!

The reason that I am writing this book is because I believe the system we are living in is broken. As you can probably see the old, go to school and get a job routine isn't working for most people anymore. According to several articles located on The Huffington Post, Cnbc, Time, USA today, Bloomberg, Business Insider, and many more, school costs way more than it ever has, and nearly everyone that graduated from college can't find a decent job. Even the student loan amount owed is at an all-time high of 1.2 Trillion dollars. I feel though that I am here to help people get out of that system.

I wrote this book as a short, simple, and straight to the point way for anyone to understand what it takes to become a success. I've broken everything you need into 5 simple rules. I have spent years studying the greatest people in the world to learn just exactly how they are able to do what they do, and now I want to share it with you.
