The story in front of you is beautifully crafted with the selection of suitable words to render the reader most amazing ideas that will enable the reader to fly in his utopia and enjoy with direct vision of interaction between different characters of the story and will nourish different moral characters of naive children on the other side and it will happen just in the fun.

The story is designed in accordance with the demand and mentality of innocent children and is very interesting for little children yearning to read some kind of amazing stuff.

The story talks about a very hard working farmer who was famous and liked all over his town. He was diligent and satisfied with everything in his life but he was very disappointed from the inactivity of his sons. He advised them too much in his entire life in different times and with different styles but it was all in vain. The days passed and the farmer got sick till the day came when the farmer had no more hope about recovery of his health. So one day he made a very intelligent trick to force his lazy boys towards work. He told this secret trick to his wife and son died. His wife intelligently acted upon the trick of her husband and finally became able to make her sons diligent for work.

And after some days, when the boys acted upon the trick and found a lush green field as the farmer desired from them in his life, they understood the wisdom of their parents.

The story is very fruitful for little children to teach them about the uniqueness of hard working and the point that the actual pleasure is only obtained through the consequence of diligent work and devoted patience.
