Thirteen Roses, Book Three: Beyond: An Apocalyptic Zombie Saga (Volume 3) Mr Michael Cairns
St Paul's Cathedral is filled with attractive young blond women. In gas masks. The plague will soon have run its course, leaving the world filled with zombies and the crew neck deep in shit. And attractive young blond women in need of rescue. But first, Luke and the others have to escape from St Paul's. The soldiers of God have other plans, and they aren't the only ones. Some old friends of Luke's are about to turn up and offer him a proposition he might not be able to refuse. Even if they do escape, they know they have to go back in one more time. After all, attractive blond women in need of rescue... But who will go in, and who will come out? And it's not all about Luke. Bayleigh has dreams of making something worthwhile in the new world, whilst David has dreams of murder. Krystal's already living her dream, in a world where everyone's homeless. Alex is a believer, in a new world filled with cynics. And Jackson? Jackson doesn't need dreams. He's got God.
