"Sacrifice" a story about the desperation of a teen mother, whose life was turned upside down with the help of her aids affected mother, who was forced to have her. This curse that raged through her family has bruised her own daughter. It has taken her through hell and back, even to the gates of death with the possibility of no return. She grew to be worse than expected and has spun out of control. She's even betrayed her only friend to save her own soul. Passion for survival has driven her to the cloud of pain and sorrow. Skeletons from her closet are forcing her to fight back as the obstacles that continue visiting her life keep destroying her soul, pride and dignity. Will she finally have the guts to fight back or will she let the fear of fighting back destroy her.
