The Portable MBA in Finance and Accounting John Leslie Livingstone, Theodore Grossman
The latest volume in the bestselling series

In today's business environment, a knowledge of finance and skills in budgeting and financial planning are more important than ever before. Totally updated and revised, this highly anticipated Third Edition provides new information on five such key topics as interpreting financial statements; information technology in finance; planning capital expenditures; information technology and your firm; business valuation, and much more. Top experts in each field explain the basics of cost-volume analysis, forecasts, and budgets, and reveal how to create a winning business plan. Ideal reading for any manager or executive who needs a "refresher course" in finance.

Les Livingstone, PhD, MBA, CPA (West Palm Beach, FL), runs a national consulting firm which specializes in complex business research and expert testimony in large commercial lawsuits. He was chairman of the Division of Accounting and Law at Babson College.

Theodore Grossman (Wellesley, MA) is a senior member of the faculty of Babson College with an appointment in information technology and accounting.

Alice Winfield:

As a student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or even make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's soul or real their passion. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Portable MBA in Finance and Accounting can make you feel more interested to read.
