But when she sees her childhood sweetheart, Levi, she realizes her heart always belonged to him.

Though his family does their best to keep them apart, Levi shows up in Philadelphia and proclaims his undying love for her.

Being together would mean the end of their current relationships, and that one of them would need to choose a different way of life.

With so much tension between Roseanna and her family and former community, will she return to her Amish roots and join the church?

Or will Levi abandon his church and choose to marry her and live among the Englisch?
