All About Phonics: Consonant Blends is a book of worksheets and activities that introduces the consonant letters and sound to kindergarten through second-grade children. It covers both initial and final consonants. The simple and motivating activities presented in the book are easy and fun for the children. They involve a variety of hands-on activities such as cut-and-past, matching, writing, games, and more. The activities foster the development of skills essential to beginning reading and writing.

The children will also enjoy the delightful mini-story books at the end of the book. Picture support and predictable context will encourage the emergent reader. Children may take the books home to share with family and friends.
