Flyleaf Spreads Their Wings: The Story of a Supernatural Rock Band from Texas Carl W Phelan

Flyleaf Spreads Their Wings is a story for past, present and future fans of an incredible supernatural rock band from Texas that started out playing in small venues for a few people and ended up playing for thousands in large arenas. Their music and lyrics are deep, honest, profound, passionate, inspirational, uplifting and life changing for people around the world. When my grandson, Jared Hartmann and his friend Sameer Bhattacharya were very young, they both had the hope of being a rock star. This book is about five young people, who had the same Christian belief, got together and decided they wanted to be the best they could be for God. It was not an easy task, but with sincere determination and long hours of practice, they have attained a measure of amazing success. This book will tell their incredible story. This band started in 2002 and since then I have kept most of the reviews, photos, music charts and memorabilia of all kinds. I wanted all people, fans around the world and future fans to know what an incredible supernatural band they have become. Their music and lyrics have inspired possibly millions of people with their thought provoking, morally uplifting, and life changing songs. All 5 members of the band have contributed to the writing of all their songs. In this book I will attempt to show the attributes of this band and how they may have possibly influenced a generation of people to live better lives and to get more out of life. Those that get this book will have a triple treat. It will be a book about an incredible rock band, it will also be a scrapbook and a photo album. May the Blessings of Life be upon all who will read and enjoy this book.
