Their relationship was intense, passionate, all consuming. When they were together, Miriam knew who she was, in the way you can only know when you're deeply in love.

Now that it's over, Miriam has to pick up the pieces.

Even when Elliot starts seeing someone else. Even when she impulsively knocks over a priceless work of art. Even when she's blackmailed by the mystery girl who saw her do it.

Without a map, Miriam has to find her way. If only she knew how.
