Misery found Company and somehow Love got in the way, is the simplest way to put it. Mistafunn delivers a fascinating, timeless, heart twisting piece of literature in this follow up to “The Dae the Sun Wouldn’t Rise”. New cast characters some of the old faces tying somethings together. It should be no surprise that mistafunn continues to engage the reader with more than the typical love triangle. To bring you deep into his world there are footnoted delicious recipes and a deeply sensitive music playlist that accompany your journey. Chris and Miz walk that fine line of lifelong friends and nothing more. She is with someone. He just found someone. What happens when secrets and real emotions are revealed. Whose side do you pick? The only tragedy here is you will never see then end coming (and you won’t get it until you read the entire story).
