The Earl and His Tiger Special Edition: Regency Romance Elizabeth Moss

New for 2015, an extended Special Edition of THE EARL AND HIS TIGER with a delightful new short romance at the end, LAVINIA IN LOVE, featuring the earl's bluestocking sister Lavinia.

Stranded together during a snowstorm, the rakish Earl of Stanton is staggered to discover that his sturdy "tiger" - an elite Regency groom - is actually a female in disguise. Being a duke's daughter had brought Lady Jane de Montfort nothing but misery and the prospect of a loveless marriage. So she had run away to pursue the only passion she had ever known – a love of horses!

As master and groom, they had been trusty companions. Companionship now turns to desire, resulting in a compulsive affair that must at all costs be kept hidden from Polite Society.

"He wanted this woman in the most absolute way, stripped to the soul, stamped with his name, shackled and subordinate to his will, never permitted to leave his side."

From the multi-published romance author of WOLF BRIDE - 'well-written and will sweep you breathlessly away' (Star Magazine) - and A MOST DANGEROUS LADY. Perfect for lovers of full-length Regency romances.
