The Black and White version of "The Power of With". This book will also give you as a parent or educator the opportunity to share experiences and values with your children as you read the book together. For example, take the carnival scene, where Eric and his mother tried fried ice cream for the first time. Imagine how you could stop reading at that point and share an experience that you had at a carnival or a time when you experienced one of life's troubles like Eric did and got stuck in a tree.
