Agile Kids Shirly Ronen-Harel, Danny Kovatch

A practical way of getting daily tasks done and enhancing family communication. Agile Kids is the book every modern family needs, with both parents with full time jobs, and children who need their attention.

An essential part of your child's development is his ability to choose, be independent and control what happens in his life, and parents need to encourage that independence.

Agile Kids will show you how to empower your children without losing your parental authority, through a collection of practical actions. Each chapter can stand alone, and offers practical advice you can act on straight away. The methods described in the book are effective at teaching values and respect to others, and applies to public and home schooled children alike.

So enjoy :)
