Katy felt a strong attraction to her creative writing professor Amy Lescott ..

The first time that the two locked eyes. It was a strange feeling, unlike anything that she'd ever experienced. She certainly was not a lesbian. She had a boyfriend! It didn't make any sense. Professor Lescott begins to take a keen interest in Katy after reading one of her steamy short stories. When they find themselves alone in the Professor's office, there's no telling what will happen.

Will their desire for each other prove stronger than the rules and taboos that stand in their way?
