Loving My Husband & Yours Too 2: The Final Choice Shelli Marie

A Brief Excerpt:

“Why can’t you just marry one of your other broads, or even Keira for that matter? I’m sure she would be more than happy to be your wife. Shit she seems to love anything that I’ve had,” I frowned then cracked a wide grin as I sipped my water.

Just as he was about to go in on me, the waitress walked back over with our food. I looked up and diverted my attention away from him for a moment or so when I noticed Tamario waltzing in the front door. ‘Shit,’ I cursed under my breath.

“You have an order ready for Rio?” he asked the lady behind the counter.

I attempted to put my head down before he could spot us out, but since my ass wanted to sit up front that was impossible. Before I knew it, he was coming our way.

“Oh what’s all of this?” Tamario barked approaching the table.

“It really isn’t what it looks like baby,” I tried to tell him.

“What the fuck you mean... Baby?” DeAndre quizzed.

“So this is what we do now Sensay? You up in here, all in this fool’s face, after we just made love?” Tamario asked completely ignoring my husband.

It was killing me inside to see him standing there like that, especially since I could see the disappointment written all over his face. Lord knows that was the last man on earth that I ever wanted to hurt.

“Rio you’re blowing this way out of the water for no reason. I’m only having dinner with him to discuss some things. I will call you later,” I explained attempting to give him the side eye, but his ass wasn’t catching on.

“Fuck all of this. Fool this is my wife. Take ya ass on before I have to put hands on you,” DeAndre gritted getting up from his seat. “Fuck you mean after y’all made love!”

Tamario glanced over at me with the look of death in his eyes. I knew that it wasn’t about to be a good turnout.
