There's a secret that only a few people know about. The wealthy of the city are welcome. It's an event; a high-bidding event where those with money can go to get something they can't get anywhere else.

Complete control.

It's called The Auction, and it's all for charity. Everyone is willing, but no one knows what they're getting into until they've been bid on and brought home. Jessica has finally made it onto the stage as a person to be bid upon, and she is thrilled, nervous, and dying to see what will happen to her.

When she's taken home by a mysterious billionaire who immediately makes it clear who is in charge, her heart races. It's everything she hoped for. But while Jessica will indeed be dominated by this powerful man, she has no idea how far it will go.
