Adventures In Terror: Mostly the 1980s - a Novel Aaron Saylor

Aaron Saylor's acclaimed first novel SEWERVILLE introduced the world to Seward County. Now, ADVENTURES IN TERROR: MOSTLY THE 1980s takes a nostalgic journey into the shadowy corners at the other end of the county - the magical end. The end where the real monsters live. The Whistle Mill end, where young Grady Claremont and Jasper Bohanon forge a lifelong friendship while battling the ghosts and demons that haunt the woods around their tiny home town.

Chock full of Reagan-era pop culture and already hailed as "pure joy for those who grew up with the likes of Stephen King, Fangoria magazine, Star Wars, and VHS video stores," ADVENTURES IN TERROR: MOSTLY THE 1980s will delight horror fans with its Southern Gothic twist on genre touchstones, as Grady and Jasper battle elements both real and fantastic around their hometown. Witches, zombies, werewolves, even an Irish banshee pose as much threat to the boys as their overzealous middle school librarian or the creaking machinery of the carnival.

ADVENTURES IN TERROR: MOSTLY THE 1980s is the first volume in a coming of age saga that spans decades and universes. Climb on board today!
