Sandra Moyer's preschool is struggling, so when her sister suggests allowing a super-famous actor to research his latest role there, she reluctantly agrees. Except the actor turns out to be Ben Capshaw—a playboy who's never serious, always joking around, and who knows zero about kids or being a parent. Case in point: his involvement in the untimely death of the preschool's class pet... Ben is enjoying teaching more than he thought he would, but that doesn't mean he's looking for a permanent position. Sure, he's ready for more serious movie roles and less goofing off, but the buttoned-up, beautiful Sandra and her young daughter are more than he bargained for. Plus, Sandra still won't trust him—what if it's all an act, research for the role? As the lines between make-believe and reality blur, Ben will have to decide if love is worth casting aside the role of his life for a new role...that could last a lifetime.
