The Secret War: The Heavens Speak Of The Battle Heidi Hollis

Take an insightful journey into a world and battle unseen by many, but felt by most. A battle that entails the lives and spirits of all those who reside on Earth, or merely just visiting. For centuries its been rumored and prophesied that static between good and evil would accumulate to a final battle. Now hear the words spoken from those aware and involved in this battle, and the roles and actions they take in it. Two young women unsuspectingly come into contact with a being that shows them a new way of looking at the existence around them and how other non-human beings interfere in it. How these interfering beings called Shadows, are of great concern. But that the solution lies in all of us, and how important it is not to underestimate the power of the human soul. Follow along in this personal, heartfelt and yet effervescent book that's written in modern day language to help reflect the human side of coming to terms with and comprehending things outside societal norms. Also hear the words of beings from elsewhere speak on the coming times, various aliens, mystical places, ghosts, God, the afterlife, Jesus visions, and so much more.
