A Sparrow Who Ate the World: A Hundred Pounds of Poems in a One Pound Book is an anthology of contemplations and reflections of the heart. The origin of these poems finds its way to you through a life shared deeply with and among many; they are coloured by broad brush in metaphor, assonance, alliteration, and rhyme. The true meaning of this collection is found through you, for within the soul of the beloved reader is a patient universe waiting to be written. Indeed, the poet "creates anew the universe," wrote Percy Bysshe Shelley. The author is also the reader; life is the book!
