Caught in a web of terror, Allison decides her only choice is to abort her baby. That is, until she meets Mark Copeland, who offers her a marriage of convenience. Since they each believe their destiny is a marriage without love, they cannot realize what is so apparent to everyone else...that both of them are already under love's spell. Many things—blue eyes, cookies, mysterious envelopes, secrets, a dangerous fall, an unexpected visit from a stepbrother, military deception, legal intervention, a birth—bring to awareness and fruition a bounty of love and understanding. And Allison...it all started with a girl like you!
