Books for Kids: Three Little Pigs

The story of the Three Little Pigs is actually about 3 pigs that almost all build a house on their own. The book then divides into three processes focusing on how every pig builds his house with the first pig creating his house from straw and takes the remainder of the time playing and relaxing. The 2nd pig chooses to develop his home from sticks and also takes longer than the very first however not that much longer and then will take the rest of the time playing and sleeping. The real meaning of the story will only be observed along with the efforts of the third pig who takes lots of time developing his home. He takes a lot of time that he has no time playing and relaxing because he decides to utilize bricks when developing his house.
