She had the highest standards of everything. Every particle of her being screamed perfection. She was perfection and desired perfection in everything. Her arrogance was the topic of common gossip. People loved to hate her and hated to love her. They couldn't help it. She was a center around which everything revolved and it revolved with its own free will.

It often happens with the people, who think they are perfect that in their fantasy they commit an act of imperfection. This was exactly what happened with her. She fell in love.

One thing that is for sure is that falling in love is definitely a deviation from the ideal condition.

Once you have slipped, there is no going back. It is a trench so deep that no amount of swimming can save you. You must drown at least for once before you get out of the moat, undrown able.
