Can she annihilate him ... before her memories destroy her? Warning: This novel contains violence and sexually explicit scenes which may be disturbing to some readers. When Cindy Parkers' fourteen-year-old body shows up in a dumpster, Fran Walters of the Organized Crimes Against Children Task Force knows that this isn't just a case of a teenage runaway reaching a tragic end. There is a mark on Cindy's body, a branding Fran knows well. Fran hits the ground running to track down the origins of the cult which abducts young girls and weaves their innocence into a fabric of prostitution and pornography. Fran knows she hasn't much time; another girl will soon be abducted, as they have every year on the 7th September. Fran knows because once she wore the brand of September 7. September 7th ... To save this year's September 7th girl, Fran must find and destroy the man she knows as Uno. But someone else is hunting Fran's prey, and although Jake Harrison has his own agenda, Fran needs his dangerous skills. Banish the darkness ... When Harrison unknowingly leads Fran back into the nightmare of September 7, her memories threaten to destroy her. Desperately she fights free and tracks Uno to the cult's headquarters on a remote Mexican mountaintop. There she battles Uno to rescue a young girl from the dark, and in defeating him, finally banishes her own darkness
