Out of View

A herd of mammoths stampedes in terror.
An angry volcano spits lava and smoke and hot poison air.
Overtaken by scorched dry ash, only their footprints will last,
Held for eons in the soft rain's mud, turned to stone.
Man, thousands lain dead, hundreds lying dying, another war.
Somewhere in time, packs of wolves watch,
And pace, waiting in the tree line.
No victory this day, no songs, no wine, no weeping,
Only the howls of joy for such a great find.
In a room out of view, a man is tossed with dreams, existing in a dream,
Existing out of time, he sits up, he knows his puzzle is complete,
His dream has awakened with him, and for a dream he weeps.
The world awakes like a scroll to an idea that could not sleep.
Out of view day grays to black night.
Out of view, darkness becomes light, becomes light for another world,
Where flowers bloom for the moon, where bats take flight.
Out of view sunsets, the stars rise, the lioness wakes to a hungry pride.
Above the tall grass her tail twitches with delight, playfully dancing,
A child's toy, hiding her might, hiding from her prey, waiting to strike.
The huntress, out of view, until the time is just right.
Out of view is where the random exists.
Out of view, hope and fear, clouded in mist.
Out of view lies the infinite:
No connections, no envy, no time, no shopping lists.

Go Ask Alice

Thank goodness, finally it's the law.
If we get nuked we'll still stand tall,
Around the country in bunkers large and small,
A shadow government will rule us all.

Project Alice rules the ruins from the rabbit hole,
Project Alice is ten feet tall.
Go ask Alice, she knows it all.

You've never been so short,
She's never been so tall:
Project Alice, project martial law.

There will be no elections come next fall.
Alice did agree to read a few petitions;
She also agreed to meet with the opposition.
Their authors and signers were charged with sedition.
Alice then broadcast their executions.

Alice says feed your head.
If you're sad take some pills and lie in bed.
If you're sad, it's you, not me.
Feed your head and watch TV.
There's one channel left, and it's free.

If you have a problem don't rebel.
Go ask Alice, she will give you some pills.
Alice is all powerful, just bend your will
Alice is tough, but Alice is also merciful
Read the bottle citizen: automatic refills.
Feed your head, citizen, feed your heads.
Do what the soldier says.
